

CONSIDER IT HANDLED™

OPEN WIDE TO PEACE OF MIND.

A lot goes into getting your commercial openings manufactured correctly and delivered on time. You need expert consultations, accurate quotes, quick turnaround, and open lines of communication with your door supplier. Otherwise, the smallest error or miscalculation can cause weeks of delays and building-sized headaches.

THAT'S WHERE WE COME IN.

We eat, breath, and live doors. (Sounds strange?) Not to us. As the industry's foremost supplier of commercial doors, frames, hardware, and accessories, M&D Door is the go-to source for contractors who need to get their projects done right and on-time.

WHO WE ARE?

LEADERS, CRAFTSMAN, EXPERTS.

Over the past 25 years, we've built a reputation for providing attentive customer service, reliable time frames, rapid turnaround, and outstanding products.

LOOKING FOR THE EAST COAST'S LARGEST COMMERCIAL SUPPLIER OF DOORS? NICE TO MEET YOU.

By keeping almost all standard and non-standard doors, frames, and hardware in stock, we're able to keep your project on the fast track.

WE'VE GOT THE POWER.

Having proprietary machinery in-house enables us to manufacture any custom product you need with the shortest lead times in the industry.

WE'VE BEEN AROUND THE BLOCK.

With more than 100 years of combined industry experience under our team leaders' belts, we guarantee your project will get completed quickly and efficiently.

GETTING IT DONE. FROM PRICING TO DELIVERY.

YOU CAN'T BEAT EXPERIENCE.

You're in great hands with our counter sales team that provides expert consultation through every step of the ordering process.

CRYSTAL CLEAR SUBMITTALS.

We don't believe in back and forths. We believe in measuring twice and cutting once. That's why we boast the fewest change orders in the industry. Rest easy knowing that the take-offs and cost estimates we provide are always right on the money.

IT'S NOT JUST A DOOR. IT'S THE FINAL TOUCH.

Architects and project owners rely on you to finish their ventures without ifs, ands, or buts. You rely on us to have what you need, and that's not a responsibility we take lightly. We provide the professionalism and speed that will make you the first person your customers call when it comes to all things doors.

WHAT DOES M&D OFFER?

EXPERTISE:

Our DHC-led engineering team analyzes your door schedule, creating detailed shop drawings of every door and its hardware, and ensuring that the complex puzzle fits together, every time.

SPEED:

From a warehouse full of standard and non-standard doors, to in-stock specialty hardware, to quick shipping programs with national vendors, we get it done without having to wait.

COMMUNICATION:

From RFI's to dispatch calls, you will be in contact with a team of estimators, detailers, and project managers who will let you know where your project is every step of the way.
